"oils of the outback" information sheet

The richness and diversity of the Australian landscape are the inspiration for the "Oils of the Outback" luxury massage oil range.

Rare and beautiful Australian essential oils feature in five distinct products of the range, each with its own character, and all with a special super smooth massage oil base thanks to a new high purity macadamia nut oil.

Whether used for a silky smooth massage, or added to a bath for sumptuous fragrance, there will be an oil of the outback style to suit.

A blend of lime, and Australian Lemon Myrtle Oil (backhousia citriodora), with a hint of mandarin, creates the invigorating experience of vital. Great for an enlivening morning massage or whenever you need a pick me up. Excellent for quick neck and shoulder massages during a busy schedule.

SERENE

The wonderful aroma of premium tea rose and Australian Desert Rosewood Oil (eremophila mitchellii) creates a serene massage experience. A calming rich experience for that quiet Sunday evening, or whenever there is the need to feel special.
